

The ultra-lightweight manual wheelchair is the most appropriate solution for Mr. Smith's clinical needs, providing essential support for his mobility and daily functioning. The device addresses his specific requirements for postural control, pressure relief, and independent mobility, significantly improving his quality of life and reducing the risk of complications associated with his medical conditions.

K00038 STRAP, LEG, EA.

- Strap will position his feet on the footrests keeping from falling backwards.
- Helps circulation through positioning.
- Prevents skin integrity issues.

K0108 W/C Accessory

- Positioning belt clamp to mount his hip preventing him from sliding.

E2607 W/C Cushion

- Severe pelvic asymmetry.
- Preventing skin breakdown.
- Can allow for adjustment